

Rapunzel

- 1 Finally, some space to explore! No more sitting in a tower, waiting for someone to rescue me! Now I can climb wherever I want.
- 3 I agree Cinderella. Why wait for some prince when we have everything we need to save ourselves?
- 5 Hi Sleeping Beauty. Have you got another big order to deliver?
- 12 You two really do look out for others.
- 20 Little Red, that's great! It seems your Grandma is getting stronger everyday.
- 42 We are too old fashioned. But we are trying to modernize. Get more people interested in our stories again.
- 82 Sort of! My name's Rapunzel. I used to rely on my hair, but now I like to see what I can do without it. I've been "learning the ropes"... literally.
- 84 That's brave. I mean, who needs a prince, right?
- 87 No. We're...good, thanks.
- 90 You'll find we're quite capable, thank you. We can run, we can climb. We even come with survival gear.
- 130 (pointing to a cliff) Maybe that way? It looks like that is where all this energy is coming from.
- 150 A tree with endless golden hair-like vines?
- 161 I've got some good climbing tricks up my sleeve. And, if necessary, my hair can be a rope again!
- 182 (nervously) Well, just hurry! That storm doesn't look like it's going to wait.
- 192 To embrace independence and adventure!
- 203 Look, it's like the entire kingdom's been bathed in magic again.
- 209 It's like we've created our own fairy tale.
- 233 (patting Hansel and Gretel's shoulders) Well, you two can count me in if you ever need a hand, or a hair rope, to get out of a sticky situation!
- 246 And even if it doesn't last, I think we all learned something from her, and from each other.
