Act 1: Scene 1 - The Library

Puss in Boots: ... and his... modern friends.

Breadcrumbs? No, not this time Gretel. I've got my compass, GPS, and map. No more getting lost!

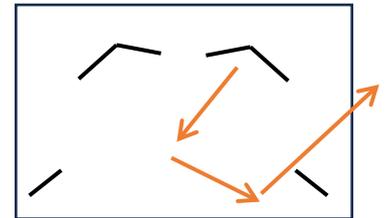

Gretel: ...or do you want to stay as Gretel #2?

Very funny. If I wasn't behind you, the witch would have cursed you instead.

Witch: ... should I say Gretel and Gretel!

Thanks again. Any chance you'll reverse it, Witch?

Oh, no, we aren't sisters. My name is actually Hansel, this is Gretel. You see there was this witch who...

Red Riding Hood: Ohhh, I get it. Like an... accidental new look?
More like an "unwanted twin." I'm trying to find a way to fix it. And it starts by knowing exactly where we are. Which we do... mostly!

Red Riding Hood: ... I guess you two walk in the forest a lot?
Yeah. But I'm actually a forest-tracking expert now. No more getting lost for us. I can follow the sun, shadows, the stars, and because Gretel knows the plants, we are like a two-person rescue team.

Red Riding Hood:... wild berries, secret herbs, and a dash of magic.
Jams? Like... for bread?

Gretel: That was... odd. Not a normal breeze, was it?
No. I don't need a compass to tell me something strange is going on.

Red Riding Hood: Any idea what's causing this?
Not yet, but we've seen stranger things. If something's out there, we'll work it out.

Well, yes, you are a witch.

Cinderella: Let's move! Step, step, step!

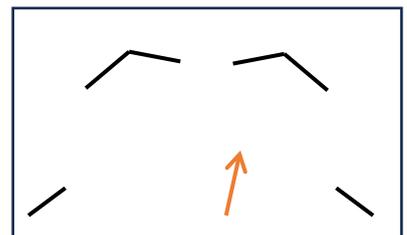

My compass shows the way! Stay close!

Me especially.
